To the Probate Registrar

I spoke to my solicitor today 14th February 2007 and she informs me that you have refused to issue a certified copy of the will re Erini Stiliano deceased. You had told her that your reason is that you want permission from the executor. This is not required when requesting the mentioned document. I know that if we were requesting an exemplification then we would be required to take the executor to court.

I have a copy of the letter you had sent to my father's (Philip Stilianos) previous solicitor Nick Venezilakos where you had offered a certified copy of the will. Why are you now refusing to do this. It seems to me that you are not complying with the law and following procedure. Therefore please forward a the certified copy of the will as previously offered to my address as soon as possible as my father will be in Greece. Should you be unforthcoming in regards to this request, we will have no choice but to take the matter further.

My address is:

18 Todd Court
CROYDON VIC 3136

Regards

Anne-Marie Stilianos
