Nicky

I was never rude or interfered with anything that I shouldn't have been doing, nor was I abusive to anyone. Everything I wrote was from the evidence in the emails sent to Philip from each of you. If what I wrote hurt, it was the truth as I saw it, and there is nothing I can do about that.

I am Philip's Power Of Attorney, so I consider this to be my business. Philip appointed me because his daughters abandoned him at a very crucial time in this, his inheritance battle. Anne-Marie and Irene did some very good work and would easily have defeated his siblings, who are defrauding him and his family line, if they had continued.

As it was Philip had no support and was battling on his own, with little hope of defeating the Public Trustee and South Australian Government. They are now in a position where they have no where to go, but are no doubt looking for another illegal avenue to go down. So far every illegal action they have tried has been foiled by the sole beneficiary and me.

We know there is fraud being carried out and it is sad that Philips siblings are involved, but what is much worse is his daughters and grand daughters being involved. You will recognise this statement 'don't do anything the money will come'.

Why don't you all capitulate, join your father, and overthrow this whole thing, you will then all benefit legally.
