Hi dad, me again - don't worry I'm not nagging you about the money. But what ever your decision I would like a response so that i know that you got it.

I'm emailing you today to ask you something else. This decision will be easier fo you to make. I'm practising my typing skills at the moment to improve my skills so I can look for a better job next year. I'm also improving my Word skills and it will help if I can print of some of the practise sessions I'm doing, so I was wondering whilst you are overseas if I can borrow your printer. I'm not going to keep it, I just thought that if your not going to use it, it might as well be put to some use.

Email me as soon as possible to let me know - thanks.
